Beach Briefs - June 18, 2019

Your Chance to Serve

At our June Board meeting, Dave Jensen submitted his formal resignation, effective September 27, 2019, after having served for 25 years on our Board of Commissioners

The Captiva Erosion Prevention District is governed by an elected board of five commissioners, each of whom is a qualified elector residing within the District. This is a non-partisan office.

Why Become a Commissioner?

- Because you are community-oriented
- Because you care about preserving and sustaining the environment
- Because you recognize the benefits beach renourishment bring to both the community and your property
- Because you want to make sure Captiva is a viable and thriving community well into the future

How to Become a Commissioner?

There are two ways to become a commission; elected or appointed.

Elected

You must be a registered Captiva voter residing within the District.

You are elected by the qualified electors residing within the District.

Positions come up for election every two years.

Appointed

If a vacancy occurs on the Board due to the resignation, death, or removal of a Board member, the remaining members may appoint a qualified person to fill out the remainder of the unexpired term. (You must be a registered Captiva voter residing within the District.)

What is Expected of a Commissioner?

- Attend the monthly Board meeting.
- Attend the weekly briefing meeting if possible. (These are often cancelled and are not mandatory.)
- Vote on every motion in which there is no personal interest.
- Request items be placed on the meeting agenda, introduce motions and resolutions, and discuss subjects.
- Attend CEPD public hearings, emergency meetings, and special meetings.
- Any commissioner can serve as an officer (Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, or Treasurer) if and when elected by the other commissioners.

Additional Information:

Commissioners serve a four-year term, when elected.

Commissioners complete the term of the departing Commissioner if appointed.

Commissioners receive no compensation; they are volunteer.
